Quality Care - for you, with you

We are here to help

If you don't have a children services social worker this may be for you

Staying Connected is a helpline for children, young people and families in the Southern Health and Social Care Trust area who may need practical advice and who could be socially isolated due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Staying Connected has been established to respond to the challenges associated with social isolation.

Trained social care staff will answer your call, offering you:

- A listening ear
- Support and guidance
- Links to practical support and follow up services
