For exams longer than one hour, candidates will not be allowed to leave the exam room until at least one hour after the published starting time. Once a candidate leaves the examination room they will not be able to return. Candidates wishing to use the bathroom will be escorted to the toilet room by a member of staff and will have no contact with other students or have access to any learning resources.

A member of the administrative staff will attempt to contact any candidate who is not present at the start of an exam. JCQ guidelines will be followed for a candidate who is late for any examination.

Clash Candidates

The exam officer is responsible for making necessary arrangements to accommodate candidates who have examination clashes, implementing JCQ requirements at all times.

Special Consideration

Should a candidate be sick before or during an exam, suffer bereavement or any trauma, or be disadvantaged or disturbed during an exam, it is the candidate's or their parent/carers responsibility to notify the centre, the exams officer, or the exam invigilator, to that affect.

The candidate must support any special consideration claim with appropriate evidence, for example a letter from the candidate's doctor. The candidate or their parent/carer must notify the Examinations Officer within 1 day of an examination if they wish to apply for Special Consideration, applications can only be made after this request has been made.

Heads of Department will ensure all internal assessments are ready for dispatch to the awarding organisation at the correct time. The exams officer will keep a record of dispatch of coursework.

Appeals against Internal Assessments

The centre is obliged to publish a separate policy for candidates who wish to make an appeal in relation to internal assessment marks. The Examination Appeals Policy is available on request from the Examinations Officer.

Malpractice

All those involved in the public qualifications system have a role to play in supporting the appropriate delivery of assessments and upholding the integrity of qualifications. Where malpractice does occur prompt action is taken to safeguard the integrity of qualifications in accordance with JCQ requirements.

'Malpractice' and 'maladministration' are related concepts, the common theme of which is that they involve a failure to follow the rules of an examination or assessment. The word ‘malpractice’ covers both ‘malpractice’ and ‘maladministration’ and it means any act, default or practice which is:

- a breach of the Regulations; and/or
- a breach of awarding body requirements regarding how a qualification should be delivered; and/or
- a failure to follow established procedures in relation to a qualification;

JCQ Suspected Malpractice Policies and Procedures apply to all candidates and to the school as a registered examination centres and its teaching staff delivering JCQ awarding body qualifications.

As a registered JCQ centre, St Mary’s High School takes all reasonable steps to prevent malpractice. The school will:

- Ensure that staff involved in the delivery of assessments and examinations understand the requirements for conducting these as specified by JCQ and in any further awarding body guidance.
- Ensure that staff involved in the delivery of assessments and examinations understand the key dates and deadlines and that there are robust procedures in place to ensure these are met.
- Ensure that examination officers are appropriately trained, resourced and supported.
- Ensure that exams at alternative sites are conducted in accordance with JCQ ICE requirements.
- Ensure that all staff who manage and implement special consideration and access arrangements are aware of the requirements and are appropriately supported and resourced.
- Ensure that members of staff do not communicate any confidential information about examinations and assessment materials, including via social media.
- Ensure that examination clash arrangements are planned and managed effectively.
- Ensure that staff delivering/assessing coursework or non-examination assessments have robust processes in place for identifying and reporting plagiarism or other potential candidate malpractice.
- Ensure that the centre has a culture of honesty and openness so that any concerns of potential malpractice can be escalated appropriately without fear of repercussion.
- Ensure that all JCQ notices, e.g. Information for candidates, nonexamination assessments, coursework, on-screen tests, written examinations, social media, plagiarism are distributed to candidates prior to assessments/examinations taking place.
- Ensure candidates are informed verbally and in writing about the required conditions under which the assessments are conducted, including warnings about the introduction of prohibited materials and devices into the assessments, and access to restricted resources.
- Ensure that candidates are aware of actions that constitute malpractice and the sanctions that can be imposed on those who commit malpractice.

- Ensure that candidates are aware of the sanctions of passing on or receiving (even if the information was not requested) confidential assessment materials. If a candidate receives confidential information, they must report it to a member of centre staff immediately.
- Ensure that candidates involved in examination clash arrangements are aware of appropriate behaviour during supervision, i.e. ensuring that candidates cannot pass on or receive information about the content of assessments, thereby committing candidate malpractice.
- Ensure that candidates completing coursework or non-examination assessments are aware of the need for the work to be their own
- Ensure that once suspected malpractice is identified by a member of staff it must be report directly to the Head of Centre/Deputy Head of Centre

The Head of Centre will:

- Notify the appropriate awarding body immediately of all alleged, suspected or actual incidents of malpractice. The only exception to this is candidate malpractice discovered in coursework or non-examination assessments before the authentication forms have been signed by the candidate.
- If staff malpractice is discovered in coursework or non-examination assessments, the head of centre will inform the awarding body immediately, regardless of whether the authentication forms have been signed by the candidate(s);
- Follow JCQ steps as outlined in JCQ Suspected Malpractice Policy and Procedures document and report malpractice using the appropriate JCQ forms
- Be accountable for ensuring that the centre and centre staff comply at all times with the awarding body's instructions regarding an investigation;
- Ensure that where a candidate who is a child/vulnerable adult is the subject of a malpractice investigation, the candidate's parent/carer/ appropriate adult is kept informed of the progress of the investigation;
- Ensure that if it is necessary to delegate the gathering of information to a senior member of centre staff, the awarding body's agreement is obtained and the senior member of centre staff chosen is independent and not connected to the department or candidate involved in the suspected malpractice. The head of centre should ensure there is no conflict of interest which might compromise the investigation;
- Respond speedily and openly to all requests for an investigation into an allegation of malpractice. This will be in the best interests of centre staff, candidates and any others involved;
- Make information requested by an awarding body available speedily and openly;
- Co-operate with an enquiry into an allegation of malpractice and ensure that their staff do so also, whether the centre is directly involved in the case or not;
- Ensure staff members and candidates are informed of their individual responsibilities and rights as set out in this document;
- Forward any awarding body correspondence and evidence to centre staff and/or provide staff contact information to enable the awarding body to do so;
- At all times comply with data protection law;

- Pass on to the individuals concerned any warnings or notifications of sanctions and ensure compliance with any requests made by the awarding body as a result of a malpractice case.

Artificial Intelligence (AI) Use in Assessments:

AI use refers to the use of AI tools to obtain information and content which might be used in work produced for assessments which lead towards qualifications. As artificial intelligence (AI) technology is rapidly evolving, centre staff are increasingly aware of the need to manage the use of Artificial Intelligence in coursework or non-examination assessments to protect the integrity of all qualifications. While the range of AI tools, and their capabilities, is likely to expand greatly in the near future, misuse of AI tools in relation to qualification assessments at any time constitutes malpractice.

While the potential for student artificial intelligence (AI) misuse is new, most of the ways to prevent its misuse and mitigate the associated risks are not. As a registered JCQ centre, St Mary's High School already has established measures in place to ensure that students are aware of the importance of submitting their own independent work for assessment and for identifying potential malpractice.

- In accordance with JCQ General Regulations all work submitted for qualification assessments must be the students' own;
- Students who misuse AI such that the work they submit for assessment is not their own will have committed malpractice, in accordance with JCQ regulations, and may attract severe sanctions;
- Students and centre staff must be aware of the risks of using AI and must be clear on what constitutes malpractice;
- Students must make sure that work submitted for assessment is their own. If any sections of their work are reproduced directly from AI generated responses, those elements must be identified by the student and they must understand that this will not allow them to demonstrate that they have independently met the marking criteria and therefore will not be rewarded;
- Teachers and assessors must only accept work for assessment which they consider to be the students' own;
- Where teachers have doubts about the authenticity of student work submitted for assessment (for example, they suspect that parts of it have been generated by AI but this has not been acknowledged), they must investigate and take appropriate action.

Conflict of Interest

Any member of staff who is involved in the examination process and in completing their role may have a conflict of interest must report this to the Head of Centre. The head of centre is responsible for managing all conflict of interests to safeguard the integrity of all qualifications in accordance with JCQ requirements.

Concerns about the conduct of examinations

Concerns about the conduct of examinations and assessments which lead to a formal qualification from an awarding organisation in St Mary's High School should be raised with the Head of Centre. If a concern relates to the Head of Centre then the Chair of Governors should be contacted. Concerns should be addressed in a reasonable and timely fashion; if they are not, the concern should be escalated in accordance with the school's Whistleblowing Policy.

Results, Enquiries about Results (EARs) and Access to Scripts (ATS)

Results

Candidates will receive individual results slips on results days either in person at the centre or by post to their home address. Arrangement for the school to be open on results days are made by the exams officer. Results can only be given to candidates or their parent/carer.

Enquiry about Results

EARs may be requested by candidates in consultation with their subject teacher, if there are reasonable grounds for believing there has been an error in marking. Before a request is made candidates must pay the required amount and sign the declaration sheet.

Access to Scripts

After the release of results, candidates may ask subject staff to request the return of their examination script. Centre staff may also request photocopied scripts for investigation or for teaching purposes. Re-marks cannot be applied for once the original script has been returned.

Certificates

Certificates are presented to candidates at the annual Presentation Evening. Any Scripts not collected will be retained by the centre. Certificates may not be collected on behalf of a candidate by a third party.

If past students want replacement certificates they must do so by contacting the examination body independently.

Internal assessments must be securely retained by each department for one year after certification. Candidates can request their coursework within this time from their class teacher.
